Juror

Juror: Roy Sewall worked in technology for over 30 years and transitioned to full-time photography in 2008. Roy's interest in photography evolved from extensive travel in six continents. He has done photography work for government and non-profit organizations, as well as private and commercial clients and which have established him as one of the leading photographers of the Potomac River and C&O Canal. He has developed diverse bodies of work for exhibitions that include unusual foreign and domestic landscapes, old European architecture, historical re-enactment, and abstracts. In addition, he offers both private and group instruction to novice and intermediate photographers and in 2014 became an instructor for the Capital Photography Center. Sewall is a frequent judge of photographic competitions in the Washington, D.C. area and conducts critiques of bodies of work at camera clubs. He is president of the North Bethesda Camera Club. roysewallphotography.com/iWeb/Home.html
