Reflections are everywhere and they're the perfect topic for watercolor paint. Glass jars and windows, bodies of water, the sky, a rainy street - all are perfect topics for the painter. Meet with your instructor and learn how to re-create reflections with confidence. Hillis provides multiple demonstrations and students will enjoy individual coaching on technique, design and approach. Stretch yourself and move ahead as you review, renew and paint.

Experience: Intermediate Beginners and above.

Bring lunch and snacks and a supply list will be emailed on registration.

Note: Students –You may bring photographs to work from. Please be sure photos are your own copyright.
