Time & Reflections September 2024

Pamela Huffman

Pamela Huffman is an award-winning mixed media artist whose work has sold nationwide. She is working on a solo show called "In the Absence of Nurture...Nature" which has autobiographical pieces as well as work that captures the nourishing elements of the natural world. Her solo show will be at Rare Bird in Falls Church in March 2025. Pam also serves as Exhibits Coordinator at Falls Church Arts where she leads the future planning committee, selects jurors, and interacts with the media among other duties. She has juried "A Year Apart," a show focused on life during COVID and "Winter Blues." Pam also teaches painting and poetry and feels passionately that each of us is an artist and has the ability to create meaningful work.
